KINSTON, Nov. 19, 1858. Dear Progress: I have nothing of interest to communicate to your numerous readers, with the exception of the Boone Fortune. It has created quite an excitement in these diggings. Pleasure carriages can frequently be seen passing to and from our poor house, loaded est wholesale price. with the aristocracy of Lenoir, paying homage and extending the right hand of fellowship to General James Boone; and I am informed, bidding the old soldier to participate for the future in their circle. Birds of a feather will naturally flock together.

In a letter I wrote to you a few weeks ago, I stated that James Boone, a pauper in Lenoir county poor house, had inherited a fortune amounting to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. I have since been informed that the amount will be much larger than my first statement. Some of our people that seem to be posted up respecting this property, say that it will exceed three hundred thousand dollars. But I suppose no one knows the exact amount. Yet it is apparent, if all the reports be correct, the quantity must be very large, and that a prominent citizen of this county has been constituted and appointed, with the power of Attorney, to go forward and make all needful rules and regulations respect-

Mr. Boone and family are yet in our roor house, and will probably remain there until his agents make the render satisfaction in every respect. necessary arrangements for his final restitution. Then the old soldier—

A pig fight in Cincinnati is graphically described in the Enquirer. It was witnessed by two or three hundred persons at the corner of Fifth and Elm streets, and was conducted, says the reporter, in so spirited and persevering a manner as to excite universal admiration .-They fought like brave pigs, long and well, and had evidently been trained in the school of percine pugilists, for they had wind, skill, pluck and bottom. One was christened Morrissey, the other Heenan, and after fighting more than an hour Morrissey bowed his tail and with a squeal fled the field, acknowledging himself vanquished.

BEEF CATTLE-Continues to be brought to market sparingly, and the supply in butchers hands is very light. We note a good demand, and a few droves would sell readily .-See table for prices.

BARRELS-Empty Spirits Turpentine barrels are in moderate demand, and with light receipts the stock on market has ate demand, and with light receipts the stock on market has become considerably reduced. We quote small sales of changed. Wheat very dull. Quotations nominal. Southern second hand ones at $1 75 a $1 80, cash, for lots as they white 7 a 7s 2d. Corn has a declining tendency, but prices

COTTON-Since our last review the market for this article has ruled firmer, and under more favorable advices prices 18s 3d. Rosin steady at 3s 11d a 4s. Spirits Turpentine dull are a shade higher. The small receipts for the past week at 40 a 401. has caused the stock in receivers hands to become nearly worked off, and for the small lots now offering on market higher rates are asked than quotations below. In consequence of the meagre receipts the transactions have been limited, and are as follows: Thursday, 59 bales at 104 cents for middling, and 104 cents for good middling; Friday, 82 10] cents for strict middling, 10] cents for good middling, ash, Table Salt in boxes and bags, Codfish, Mackerel, Onand 10% a 11 cents for middling fair; Saturday, 76 do. at 10 lions, &c., just received in part by schr. D. W. Vaughn, from New York, and for sale by D. SMITH, Jr., cents for ordinary, 10% cents for middling, and 114 cents for tice a very light demand from the trade, and sales are rath er difficult to effect even at our lowest figures. We quote sales of only a few small lots from store at $6 25 for superfine, and $6 50 @ bbl. for family-market closing with a decided downward tendency in prices. GRAIN.-For CORN the market rules about as last reportd. Arrivals light, and the stock in dealers' hands has been considerably reduced. We notice the receipt in the early part of the week of 750 bushels old, and 3,800 do. new white, the former of which sold at 76 cents, and the latter at 75c. & bushel. OATS-Are in unusually small stock, and we note a moderate demand. One lot of 500 bushels received by a dealer. which has gone into store. - PEAS. - For Cow he market remains unchanged. There is but a light demand, and fair supply in dealers' hands. See table for quotations. -RICE.-There is a fair supply of clean in store, and but little in store. Selling in the small way at 31 cents for old, and 34 cents # fb. for new quiet. Last sales were at 521 cents for Northern, and 75 cents for Eastern.

Lime-Is in fair demand, and only a small stock on market. A lot of 500 casks was received a few days since by a dealer, which has gone into store. Selling in the small way at $1 for common, and $1 25 % cask for white. Molasses-No late receipts, and former arrivals have been pretty much closed out from first hands; in moderate lemand. See table for prices. PEA NUTS-The arrivals have been rather small during the past week, and the market rules exceedingly firm. There is a brisk demand existing, and sales are easily made. We quote sales from carts and wagons at $1 50 to $1 60 % bushel, as in quality-the larger portion being at $1 55. POTATOES-The arrivals of Sweet have been light, but with very little demand existing the market has ruled dull. We quote sales during the week at 40 to 50 cents # bushel, according to quality. In Irish we have no change to report. The market is fairly supplied, and scarcely any demand exists. See table for prices. PROVISIONS-For N. C. cured Bacon the market continues to rule exceedingly dull, and we reduce prices a shade .-Several parcels have been brought in during the past week, and in the absence of transactions there is a large stock remaining in first hands. There is scarcely any demand for retailing purposes, and we hear of sales of only 3,000 lbs. (on Saturday) at 12 cents $\mathcal{B}$ lb. for hog round. There is some little enquiry for hams, and none offering; would sell in small lots at 13\frac{1}{2} a 14 cents for good quality. See table for quotations of sides and shoulders. The arrivals of Western cured for the past week or two have been light, and the stock in first hands has become somewhat reduced; it is, however, fully sufficient for present purposes, as there is scarcely and demand. We refer to our table for store rates, at which small sales have taken place .-- LARD-There is very little demand existing for this article, and there is a moderate supply of both N. C. and Western make on market. We quote the former at 12 a 121 cents, and the latter at 111 a 12 cents # fb., as in quality. --- PORK-There is nothing new to notice in this article. The market is very well supplied with Northern, and we notice only a retail demand. See table for store rates. Fresh is brought in sparingly from the country, and is in demand; sells from carts at

7½ to 9 cents ₩ 1b., according to quality. SALT-The arrivals of Liverpool ground have been meagre | with naval stores, &c. for some weeks past, and in consequence the supply on market has become materially reduced, and is at present very light. We note a better demand, and parcels would sell quick at a fair quotation-say 95 cents a $1 @ sack. A lot of 500 sacks was received a few days since, and changed hands on terms not made public. Selling from store at $1 10 % sack. For Alumthere is only a light demand, and we note a fair stock on market. Sells from store at 20 a 25 cents

SHINGLES-Common have been in moderate enquiry for shipment, but none received except a few small boat loads. We quote at $3 a $3 25 7 M. Small sales of Contract at $5

TIMBER-Is in moderate demand for mill purposes, and but little has been brought in ;-a fair article sells readily. Sales during the week of 25 rafts at prices ranging from $4 to $9 50 $\mathbb{H}\ M., as in quality. See table.

FREIGHTS-To New York have advanced a shade since our last, but to other coastwise ports remain unchanged; market rules quiet. See table for last prices paid. We learn that a brig was taken up a day or two since for Boston at
